

French "Bonjour" / "Au revoir" / "Merci"...

3 (French, Dutch and German)

the peket

the "gaufres" (waffles)

the Walloon

- La fête des coteaux (October)
- Le 15 août (Virgin Maria)
- Saint Nicolas (among other things, gifts for children, etc. - on the 6th of December)

Some divergences of opinions exist between the two main parts of the country, Flanders and Wallonia, above all from an economic point of view.

red

By giving each other kisses!

He's the symbol of the town: a minor who likes drinking the regional alcohol named "peket". The legend says he's born between two pavements in Liège.

3. The old dialect of Liège and the region is named "le Picard", "le Breton" or "le Wallon"?

3. Which piece of food from Liège is known all over the world? Tell it in French.

3. Which regional word qualifies the traditional alcohol of Liège: genièvre or white alcohol or peket?

3. How many languages are spoken in Belgium?

3. Which language is spoken by most people in Liège? Could you mention one word of this language?

4. If I say "Tchanchès", what do you answer? What is his story? Do you know the legend about his birth?

4. How do we greet each other in Belgium?

4. Liège is very famous for its football team, the Standard of Liege. Which colour is associated to this club?

4. What do you know about the linguistic conflict in Belgium?

4. Could you name one cultural event that takes place in Liège?

